

Diary of a
Silly Sheepy
By: Katie Norris
Grade 3

Monday

Dear Diary,

Silly Sheepy here! This is such an exciting week! Friday is my birthday party! I cannot wait! My BFF Puppy is coming and I invited everyone in the village (But not Rabbit! He is just so mean!). Oh! I just remembered, I need to pick up the birthday cake Puppy made for me. See ya soon Diary!

Tuesday

Diary,

You won't believe what happened when I arrived at Puppy's house to get my cake. My cake was missing! Puppy said she turned around for one second and it was gone! So, we decided to get some ice cream and think about what to do next. Puppy needed a break from baking, but I still don't have a cake! My birthday is in three days! What am I going to do?

Wednesday

Hey Diary!

Today Puppy and I had a great idea! We decided to hold a special baking contest at lunch tomorrow. I can't wait! A lot of kids want to participate in the contest to make my birthday cake! I know it will be hard to choose the winner, but I am so excited to see how creative everyone can be.

Thursday

Well Diary, I've got my cake!

When Puppy and I got to the contest, it was packed! Everyone was there! (Even Rabbit, my arch-enemy). First, everyone made their cakes and put them in the ovens. Next, they picked out some icing and decorated their cakes. Last, it was time for me to choose the winner. It was hard but I chose Bear with his superhero cake! Also, Rabbit said something I wasn't expecting. He said, "Silly Sheepy, we have been bickering for a while now. I have been pretty mean, so I wanted to say I'm sorry and ask can we be friends?" Of course, I said yes and invited him to my party!

Friday

Dear Diary,

Today was my birthday party! I had a blast, but the best part was Bear, Rabbit and I all became friends! Now I have three best friends including Puppy! This has to be the best birthday ever!!

