One Saturday chef puppy was in the kitchen getting a drink. Then his glass cup fell and CRASH it broke.

Pirate puppy heard the shatter and raced over to help.

Pirate PUPPY helped Chef PUPPY clean up the glass.

Chef PUPPY found a tennis ball in his yard for them to play together. And they became friends.

Then they went to the beach. They found a big shell and they were jumping over it. They made up a game, whoever jumped the farthest over the shell would win.

The new friends had a fun day but their play time was over. Chef PUPPY had to go to his kitchen.
Pirate PUPPY had to go to his ship.

The PUPPIES made a plan to meet on Wednesday to play on the beach
again and hopefully
see another big shell.
