

Baby Bear and the Wolf

By Cayo Vallejo

Baby Bear was walking in the forest trying to find some berries to eat.

He suddenly saw a bush moving and shaking. "Who's there? Show yourself," said Baby Bear. A wolf jumped out from behind the bush and howled. He slowly came toward Baby Bear growling.

What the wolf didn't know was that Baby Bear was a ninja! He started kicking and punching in the air toward the wolf. The wolf ran away!

Baby Bear went back to looking for berries. He finally found a big patch of juicy blue berries. He grabbed a bunch and gobbled them up. They tasted delicious!

The berries gave Baby Bear his energy back. The fight had made him tired. Now that his belly was full, Baby Bear went to find his friends to play with.
